Join the MMBA: In 1991, mountain bike trails in Michigan were threatened to be closed! A group of advocates banded together to form the Michigan Mountain Biking Association to become the collective voice for mountain bikers. Today, the MMBA and the DNR work together closely to enhance the mountain bike experience in Michigan.

This trail, and many other trails, are made possible due to the efforts of the MMBA and its volunteers, who worked thousands of hours to create and maintain the trails you ride.
